Membership Information

Skills & Learning for London Partnership

SLLP is a partnership of organisations that provide or support education and training of adults and young people over the age of 14.

Our aim is to improve learning opportunities, learner engagement and progression through partnership and collaborative working.

SLLP membership fees are there to cover the administrative costs of running the partnership for all its members.

As a member of SLLP, anyone in your organisation can access a range of valuable support including:

- Themed Networks
- Forums and Specialist Groups
- Regular briefings on a range of topical issues
- Monthly e-bulletins for all members
- Information on bidding opportunities
- Free job advertising on the website and bulletins
- Free events promotion on the website and bulletins
- Meeting & training room hire at reduced rates
- Event management

Membership Benefits

Themed Networks

The partnership brings together a wide range of providers from all sectors to provide independent forums for networking, sharing ideas, promoting learning, increasing opportunities and adding value.

Themed networks for members are:

Employment, Skills & IAG

Employability, Skills training for adults, employer engagement, pathways to work and all aspects of information, advice and guidance for young people and adults.

Skills for Life and Functional Skills Forum

Developments in Adult Literacy and Numeracy, functional skills, Foundation Learning and all curriculum developments below Level 2.

ITT/CPD

Teacher training, professional development, CPD and all other aspects of staff development.

Sub Regional LLDD Strategy Groups

Learning provision for learners with learning difficulties and/or disabilities, routes to employment, IAG and support.

Membership Benefits

Forums & Specialist Groups

We can organise and facilitate specialist networks for members when a need arises. In 2010, we launched the highly successful Health & Social Care Education Forum in South London.

Briefings

We organise at least 2 briefings per term on current issues of most interest to our audience. Next year's briefings will include funding developments, the personalisation agenda and the development of the Qualifications Credit Framework.

Monthly e-bulletins

A monthly bulletin of news, events, useful information and member notices.

Members' Website

The website is an excellent resource with information on all aspects of our work, future meetings and events.

Free job advertising and events promotion

Member organisations can list vacancies at no charge and if you have events to promote, you can advertise on our website or have the information sent to all members through the monthly bulletins.

Meeting and Training Rooms

Members can book meeting or training rooms at discounted rates.

Event Management

Over the past 10 years, we have been organising and managing a range of events for members including the South London Employment & Skills Conference and this year's South London Lifelong Learning Network Conference.
